Introduction

Mining the History of Holyoke (STAT210) is a class at Amherst College with a mission statement of curating and publishing a piece of Holyoke's history and making it accessible to the town's people.

One way our class has begun this journey is by analyzing an old payroll registry found in an attic in Holyoke and now available in the archives of the Holyoke Public Library History Room. This register tracked pay for employees who worked at the Parsons Paper Mill in Holyoke, Massachusetts (the "Paper City") in the 1860s.

It has been remarkable to track down so much history as each page of this nearly 400 page registry has upwards of 30 names, and each name has its own story worth telling.

In the registry, we can see one's name, number of days worked, their wages, whether or not the worker had rent or board due, the final balance owed, and signature (see Figure 1). See <https://r.amherst.edu/apps/nhorton/Parsons-Paper/> for an interactive display of the register.

Workers' Summary

We took on the task of finding information about some of the employees at the paper mill. We used the database ancestry.com. The link to Amherst's access to ancestry website is here.

Here is how the ancestry website looks at a first glance:

By searching for a name and a place, (Holyoke, Hampden, Massachusetts), we were able to find census information from the 1800s and track down paper mill workers.

The number of names that appear in first search. We used educated guess to selected the most appropriate person.

The amount of information we could find on each worker varied from name to name but in general, we were able to find birth year, birthplace, spouse, children, parents, occupation, and address. We then compiled these results into a spreadsheet.

On page 259, we found two women with the same last name which was common back then but still we decided to search for one of them on Ancestry.com.

Their names were Lucy and E.A. Allen. When we searched for Lucy, we found that E.A. stood for Eliza Ann Allen—they were sisters!

Their father's name was Job Allen and their mother was Anna Allen.

Job was born in England and moved to the United States sometime before 1841.

Like his daughters, he too worked at the Parsons Paper Company.

We found record of him on page 253 and 264.

Anna Allen stayed at home.

This was an unfortunate but somewhat common life for a working-class family in Holyoke, Massachusetts in the 1860s.

- pay, daughters paid by the number of hours
- moved a lot (different addresses, include the directory images), paid board sometimes, didn't at times
- roles: finishers , father was in manufacturing, expected in the time
- Lucy first appears in 1861, Eliza appears in 1862
- Worked for the entire decade
- Hard to comment on the literacy, consistencies in signature

Conversely, we were able to find records on Joseph C. Parsons; the founder of the Parsons Paper Company.

Born on February 6, 1814, in Northampton, Hampshire County, Massachusetts to Lydia and Justice Parsons, Joseph Clark Parsons was a local businessman who became very successful after founding his mill.

He married Lucretia Hoyt Parsons and had three daughters; Catherine Turner Taft, Fannie Colton Parsons, and Elizabeth Hoyt Parsons.

We found that Parsons lived in house 22 of dwelling 165 on Suffolk street which was quite close to his Mill.

This was surprising because we expected him to live in the upper-class district because wealthier people lived in hills above sea level.

Appendix

First, we accessed the Amherst College Library account for Ancestry.com.

The screenshot shows the Amherst College Library website. The top navigation bar includes links for Library Home, Services & Requests, Find Resources, About the Library, Archives & Special Collections, and Hours & Contact. Below this, a breadcrumb trail shows Library / Research Guides / American Studies Research Guide / Find Primary Sources. The main content area is titled "American Studies Research Guide" and features a sidebar with links for Home, Find Background Information, Find Articles, Find Books, Find Media, Find News Sources, Find Primary Sources (which is highlighted in blue), Primary Sources (with a tip: "Tip: What are primary sources?"), Writing and Citing, Find Related Guides, and Research Librarian. The main content area under "Find Primary Sources" lists several collections: North American Indian Thought and Culture, Ancestry Library Edition, Archives of Sexuality & Gender, and Sixties: Primary Documents and Personal Narratives 1960-1974.

Second, we clicked the “Search” option and typed in the names of the workers and set the location to Holyoke, Hampden, MA.

Finally, we used common sense by checking if occupation of the worker was the paper industry to figure out which of the search results were our person of interest.
